Call for Papers (2021)

“Situations of Crises and International Law”

The editorial board invites authors to submit papers to be published in the 1st issue of 2021

The Journal of International Law of Peace and Armed Conflict / Humanitäres Völkerrecht (JILPAC / HuV) specialises in the legal analysis surrounding armed conflicts. The JILPAC focuses on the contemporary challenges of international humanitarian law and related fields, including international human rights law and international criminal law as well as on practical challenges of humanitarian aid and peace missions. The JILPAC publishes papers, commentaries, case notes, book reviews, and conference reports on current events and future developments of the law and of humanitarian action in both English and German.

We invite submissions of articles focusing on the following topics:

- Environmental protection during armed conflicts and the ILC Draft Principles on the protection of the environment in relation to armed conflicts;
- Diseases (e. g. Ebola, Covid-19) as a challenge to international law and the role of the World Health Organization;
- Disaster control in international law.

Articles focusing on other topics are equally welcome. Contributions can be submitted in English or German. We further welcome conference reports, book reviews (upon request), and case notes. Instructions for contributors can be found on the website of the IFHV as well as on the website of the Berliner Wissenschafts-Verlag.

The deadline for submissions is the 15th of January 2021.

All articles are subject to a double blind peer-review process by the editorial and advisory board.
