Job Advertisement for a Research Associate, part time 65% (25,89 h), starting on 1st September 2020

Ruhr University Bochum (RUB) is one of Germany's leading research universities, encompassing the entire range of academic disciplines in a single and progressive campus. This highly dynamic setting enables students and researchers to work across the traditional boundaries between academic subjects and faculties.

The Institute for International Law of Peace and Armed Conflict (Institut für Friedenssicherungsrecht und Humanitäres Völkerrecht, IFHV) is an interdisciplinary research institute at RUB located at the Bochumer Fenster, near Bochum's main station. Beyond its strong focus on and expertise in international law, the institute fosters research and teaching in the field of Humanitarian Studies, while bringing together experts from the Faculties of Law, Social Science, Geosciences, and Public Health.

The IFHV is looking for a Research Associate (payment according to TV-L E 13), starting on 1st September 2020 in part time (65 % / 25,89 weekly hours).

You would work at an institute with many national and international partners.

The main focus of the work will be the coordination of the "Joint Master's Programme in International Humanitarian Action" (NOHA-Master) offered within the framework of the Network on Humanitarian Action (NOHA).

Your field of responsibility includes:

- Independent social science and/or legal research in the field of humanitarian studies and/or (humanitarian) international law and related fields;
- Support of the coordination of the NOHA Master including supervision of international students, participation in the admission procedure and administration of examinations.

Your profile:

- Graduate in social sciences, humanities or law with a focus on humanitarian aid or international humanitarian law;
- Interest in independent research;
- Experience in working with the NOHA network or comparable European university networks is of advantage;
- Experience in organizing and conducting events/workshops;
- International experience and/or practical experience in humanitarian work are preferable;
- Excellent written and verbal knowledge of English is required;
- Very good PC skills (MS Office) are required;
- Cooperative work style, flexible, and strong organizational skills.

RUB is an equal-opportunity employer and seeks to enhance a fair gender distribution in all job categories and at all levels. RUB welcomes applications from female applicants and persons with a disability.
