

Human rights activist, Salwa Rasho and Founder of Luftbrücke Irak, Mirza Dinnayi on

Was kommt nach der Flucht aus der ISIS-Sklaverei?

Salwa Khalaf Rasho is a Yazidi human rights activist who was abducted by ISIS in 2014 along with thousands of Yazidi women and girls. She was able to escape the terrorist organization in 2015 and was resettled through a humanitarian program in Germany.

Mirza Dinnayi is a human rights advocate and the founder of Luftbrücke Irak an non-profit organization aims to assist victims of war from Irak to be treated in German hospitals.

June 4 @16.00-18.00

Ruhr Universität Bochum GD 04/620