

New scholarships available!

Would you like to become a humanitarian aid worker or tackle human rights and refugee issues in an NGO or international organization? The NOHA Master's Programme offers students, who are intending to work in the area of humanitarian action, excellent academic education and professional competencies.

We are pleased to announce that a number of new scholarships are now available for students applying for a place on the NOHA Master's Programme in International Humanitarian Action at Ruhr University Bochum [\[more information\]](#).

Eligibility

The scholarships are open to students from any subject applying for a place on the NOHA Master's Programme at Ruhr University Bochum (home institution, 1st choice). Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of academic merit, societal and social involvement, as well as concern for humanitarian issues. The scholarships are worth 3,600€ for the first year; an extension is possible.

Contact

If you would like to apply for a scholarship for the NOHA Master's Programme at Ruhr University Bochum, please indicate your interest to Ms. Laura Hofmann at laura.hofmann@rub.de.

1 st Semester	 Ruhr-Universität Bochum (RUB) GERMANY
2 nd Semester	 Aix-Marseille Université (AMU) FRANCE	 Université catholique de Louvain BELGIUM	 University College Dublin (UCD) IRELAND	 Universidad de Deusto University of Deusto SPAIN	 Uppsala Universitet SWEDEN	 Rijksuniversiteit Groningen (RUG) THE NETHERLANDS	 Uniwersytet Warszawski University of Warsaw POLAND
3 rd Semester	Research Stay			Internship

Apply now!